

It is our patient's responsibility to have a general understanding of what their dental benefits consist of. We are more than happy to assist in the filing of one's insurance and obtaining treatment estimates. However, what we provide is merely an estimate and not a guarantee. If a residual is present after insurance pays out their portion, it is the patient's responsibility to pay the amount that is not covered or remaining.

Sign: _____

Date: _____